Dr Renu Lakra was raised in a north Indian village and completed her dental degree in 2000 from Kurukshetra University. After gaining three years of experience in an Endodontic clinic and as a dental school lecturer, she moved to New Zealand in 2005. Following over 12 months in a private clinic, she obtained my NZ dental registration.

Having a strong fascination for orthodontics, Dr. Renu graduated with honours from the comprehensive series of the Progressive Orthodontic Seminar (POS), seamlessly incorporating orthodontics into her daily practice. Her enthusiasm lies particularly in clear aligners, with a substantial portion of her cases being successfully treated using this innovative approach.

For nine years, she has guided dental colleagues in New Zealand and Australia, aspiring to share dental knowledge and boost proficiency. As a mother of three, she treasures moments spent with her growing kids, offering support and guidance.
